Subject: Glass Etching Class

CENTERVILLE, OH: The Centerville-Washington Park District is offering a glass etching class Saturday, January 14 at 10 a.m. Bring your glass jars or bottles to Park Headquarters at Activity Center Park, 221 N. Main Street, and learn how to repurpose them as candle holders, lights, oil pourers, soap dispensers and more! Add your own personal touch by etching designs into the glass. A variety of stencils will be available, including but not limited to flowers, nature themes and nautical themes. Please make sure the glass containers are free of labels or glue. Extra glass bottles will be available.

The one-and-a-half hour program costs $15 for Centerville/Washington Township residents and $20 for nonresidents. Preregistration is required and can be made by visiting www.cwpd.org or calling 937-433-5155. Registration deadline is Wednesday, January 11.

The Centerville-Washington Park District operates eight community parks, nine nature parks, and 33 neighborhood parks encompassing more than 1,000 acres in Centerville and Washington Township. For more information about the Centerville-Washington Park District, please call (937) 433-5155 or visit www.cwpd.org.
