Subject: Holiday Luminary Walk at Grant Park

WASHINGTON TWP, OH: Looking for a fun, free holiday activity for the whole family? The Centerville-Washington Park District is hosting its sixth annual Holiday Luminary Walk Friday, December 12 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at Grant Park, 501 Normandy Ridge Road.

Enjoy peaceful candle lit trails through the woods, around the prairie and by the pond. A shorter path will also be available. Warm up by the campfire and play a life-size candy cane game. After your walk, join others inside the Grant Nature Center buildings for a cup of hot chocolate and some holiday snacks. A seasonal craft will be available for the little ones and music will be provided by the Hithergreen Strummers. The new executive director of the Centerville-Washington Park District, Arnie Biondo, will be on hand to greet the community.

The Park District requests pre-registration in order to have enough goodies for everyone, but walk-ups are always welcome. To register call the Park District at (937) 433-5155 or visit their website at www.cwpd.org.
