For Immediate Release:

The Centerville-Washington Park District offers the following upcoming programs:

Winter Walks

Take a break from your routine and enjoy winter by taking a walk in the park.

Adult Nature Discovery Walk: Join us Tuesday, February 12 at Iron Horse Park, 6161 Millshire Drive from 9:30-10:30 a.m. while we take a leisurely paced hike on the paved Iron Horse Trail. The fresh air will revitalize you for the rest of the day! To register for this free program, visit www.cwpd.org or call (937) 433-5155.

Back in Time: Join us Saturday, February 16, to explore the former sites of homestead and industry that were once located in Bill Yeck Park, at 8798 Rooks Mill Lane. The hike will begin at 2:00 p.m. and conclude at approximately 3:30 p.m. To register for this free program, visit www.cwpd.org or call (937) 433-5155.

Fireside Eco-Chat: Urban Naturalist

Spend an evening at Grant Park Nature Nook delving into the relationship between humans and nature on Wednesday, February 20 from 7-8:00 p.m. Local educator Matt Moyer will guide participants through a discussion of what it means to be a naturalist in an urban environment. Participants are encouraged to read Crow Planet: Essential Wisdom from the Urban Wilderness, written by Lyanda Lynn Haupt to help promote participation and discussion; however, it is not a requirement. To register for this free program, visit www.cwpd.org or call (937) 433-5155.

2013 Spring Program Registration for Centerville and Washington Township residents will begin Monday, February 11 at 10:00 a.m. and February 18 at 10:00 a.m. for nonresidents. To view an electronic version of the program listings and for information on how to register, visit www.cwpd.org.

The Centerville-Washington Park District was established in 1959 and currently operates seven community parks, eight nature parks, and 33 neighborhood parks in Centerville and Washington Township.
