For Immediate Release:

Honk, Honk, Beep, Beep, You Get to Sit in the Driver's Seat

Children of all ages will want to participate in the Centerville-Washington Park District's annual Big Rig Gig. This free event takes place at Oak Grove Park, 1790 E. Social Row Road, on Saturday, April 28 from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon, where kids small and large can honk horns, shift gears, touch buttons, and climb on and in the vehicles that frequent our community. "It is fun to watch their faces light up when the kids realize they get to climb into the vehicle and take the wheel," said Kristen Marks, Program Manager.

This year's event will have an ambulance, fire truck, monster truck, police car, dump truck, and a school bus to name a few, provided by companies around the Miami Valley as well as local government agencies. "In addition, the Park District will bring their backhoe, Bobcat, mower, and tractor," said Erin Morley, Recreation Coordinator.

The Big Rig Gig has been a fun and successful program for the Park District since 2006. For further information on this or other Centerville-Washington Park District programs visit their website at www.cwpd.org.
