Subject: Spring Stargazing

CENTERVILLE, OH: Marvel at the beauty of a starry night at Bill Yeck Park – one of the darkest locations in Centerville! Join a Centerville-Washington Park District naturalist for short night hikes through the park and observe the moon and other celestial objects using equipment from local amateur astronomers. Gather around a campfire to keep warm on this early spring night!

Spring Stargazing will be held on Saturday, March 6 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. This event is free to attend and open to all ages. Preregistration is required. Register online at cwpd.org or call 937-433-5155 to register.

Weather-related changes will be posted on cwpd.org. This event is dependent upon clear skies!

Attendees are asked to wear a face covering when a distance of 6 ft. cannot be maintained.
